

PRESS RELEASE DRAFT

Strategic partnership between FinTHESIS and LAMDA Development for exclusive mortgage brokerage

FinTHESIS, a member of the DoValue S.p.A. Group and a specialized mortgage brokerage company, announces its strategic partnership with LAMDA Development, a leading real estate development and management company. The aim of the partnership is to provide comprehensive services and meet the needs of anyone interested in purchasing a home, through personalized support and access to financing solutions.

FinTHESIS will act as the exclusive advisor and broker for mortgage loans to those interested in purchasing a home in "THE ELLINIKON," the new "smart" and "green" city on the Athenian Riviera and the largest urban regeneration project in Europe, which strengthens Greece's position on the international investment map and contributes to economic growth.

Through this collaboration, prospective buyers enjoy specialized services and support from certified advisors, as well as access to loans tailored to their personal and investment needs, from the application stage to the final disbursement of the loan. FinTHESIS offers the possibility of choosing the appropriate financing solution for a suitable mortgage loan, while LAMDA Development facilitates the search for the property that meets the desires of each interested party, making the home buying experience at THE ELLINIKON comprehensive and unique.